This innovative case comes in three individual pieces that lock tightly together for unmatched stability when in use, yet nest together in an ultra compact position for ideal storage.

"The THC-3 is truly unique in that it is as sturdy as a top-of-the line hard case but addresses the inherent problem with normal hard travel cases, which is how to fit them in the trunk of a car," said David Boardman, President of Bag Boy. "This case breaks down into three pieces and nests together. When apart, it is only 24" tall allowing it to fit in your trunk beside your golf bag."

In addition, an interior padded top and a reinforced, ultra durable walls ensure that your clubs arrive at their destination safely. When not in use, the patented design allows the three pieces to nest together, reducing the overall height to 24". The case comes with a cushioned carrying strap for easy transport.

Designed to fit today's oversize equipment, the THC-3 Travel Case will hold all size golf bags, including an 11 ½ inch staff bag! This high-tech hard case is also equipped with premium latches with keyed locks and heavy-duty hardware for maximum protection.
