

Phoenix Youth Bags Win at AJGA-Bag Boy® Event

RICHMOND, Va. — The competition was fierce at the AJGA Junior All-Star Tournament in Lake Havasu City, Ari., but golfers found a way to unwind and have a little fun at The Bag Boy Company's 'push cart shuffleboard' contest. AJGA player Zachary Wright of Phoenix tallied the most points at this extracurricular event and received a Bag Boy push cart of his choice.

The Bag Boy Company was recently named as the 'Preferred Push Cart of the AJGA' by the American Junior Golf Association. The No.1 name in golf bag and golf cart innovation, The Bag Boy Company has applauded the recent policy change by the AJGA to allow non-motorized push carts during AJGA Junior All-Star Series events for the 2008 season. This new ruling demonstrates a sincere effort on the part of the AJGA to minimize risk of injury to healthy young players by giving them the option to push their bags with carts as opposed to carrying bags.

"We're pleased to support the new policy which will help eliminate potential injuries related to carrying a golf bag during a round of golf," says Craig Ramsbottom, president of The Bag Boy Company. "Walking is definitely part of the game's tradition, and the new AJGA policy will help these kids stay healthy and enjoy the game longer."

Today, three-wheel push carts have become extremely popular and can be found at all types of facilities including private, resort and high-end, daily fee courses nationwide. The Bag Boy Company's walking cart fleet continues to evolve to include a complete line of products that are functional and easy to maneuver, providing a more comfortable and enjoyable walking experience.

Founded in 1946, The Bag Boy Company has become one of the most respected brands in golf by building a reputation for unmatched quality, unbelievable durability and unsurpassed innovation and design. The Bag Boy Company designs, manufactures and distributes a full line of innovative golf bags, push carts, travel covers and accessories designed for a golfer's on-course convenience and comfort.
